13. STORAGE AND RETENTION OF PERSONAL DATA

PERSONAL DATA PROTECTION AND PROCESSING POLICY

---

Personal data obtained by the Company is stored securely in physical or electronic media during the suitable time period so that the Company can carry on its activities. Within the scope of these activities, the Company acts in compliance with its obligations regarding the protection of personal data as stipulated in all relevant legislation, the LPPD being in the first place. Our Company has prepared and implemented a Retention and Destruction Policy.

Pursuant to the relevant legislation, with the exception of the circumstances where personal data is allowed or made obligatory to be retained for a longer period, the personal data shall be deleted, destroyed or anonymized once the purposes of processing of the personal data cease to exist or upon request by the data subject.

14. TRANSFER OF PERSONAL DATA DOMESTICALLY

The Company diligently abides by the conditions stipulated in the LPPD in regard to sharing of the personal data with third parties, without prejudice to the provisions laid down of other laws.

In this context, as a rule, personal data is not transferred to third parties by our Company without the explicit consent of the data subject. However, in cases where one of the conditions regulated by the LPPD is present, personal data may be transferred by the Company without obtaining the explicit consent of the data subject.

15. TRANSFER OF PERSONAL DATA TO FOREIGN COUNTRIES

The transfer of personal data abroad is carried out in accordance with Article 9 of the Law on the Protection of Personal Data (LPPD). Such transfers are subject to the presence of at least one of the data processing conditions set forth in Articles 5 and 6 of the LPPD, compliance with the relevant legislative provisions, and an adequacy decision issued by the Board regarding the recipient country, sector, or international organization. The Adequacy Decisions are granted and published in the Official Gazette based on criteria such as reciprocity, the data protection framework of the recipient country, the existence of independent and effective data protection authorities, and participation in international agreements. These decisions are subject to review at least once every four years and may be amended, suspended, or revoked if deemed necessary.

In the absence of an Adequacy Decision, personal data may only be transferred abroad if appropriate safeguards are in place or if specific exceptional circumstances apply. Appropriate safeguards may be ensured through mechanisms such as binding corporate rules, standard contractual clauses, or written commitments approved by the Board. In exceptional cases, data transfers may be carried out based on the explicit consent of the data subject or on legal grounds such as the performance of a contract, the protection of public interest, or the safeguarding of legal rights. Subsequent transfers of data that have been transferred abroad must also comply with the same safeguards. The Company's practices adhere to the relevant Regulations governing the procedures and principles applicable to such transfers.

16. EFFECTIVENESS AND IMPLEMENTATION

The personal data processing and protection policies of the Company shall be drawn up primarily within the framework of the LPPD and other relevant legislation. In the event that all or certain articles of the
